

PLANTAIN CHIPS

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Delicious snack of green plantains, variety Barraganete, grown by independent producers of Ecuador. Our goal is to provide our product to customers worldwide. This product let us show you part of our culture and traditions with high sensory characteristics and international standards. We aim to generate a social and economic positive impact on our customers and country.

The chips are considered a source of starches and fibre with low sugar level. During the production, the raw plantain is cut in rounded slices and fried in vegetable oil with no added chemicals or preservatives. The product has 2 mm wide and 2.5 cm in diameter. We believe that innovation, high-quality equipment and technology is the key to ensure the best service to our clients.

PLATANITOS are ideal to enjoy as snacks during meetings, lunch, walks and lunch for children. The use of PLATANITOS in your cuisine can bring the Latin American flavor to your table. They are perfect for dipping with guacamole, salsa or hummus.
